Welcome to Enterprise Products!

We value our relationship with our contractors, consultants and suppliers. Please review the following summary of our Standard of Business Conduct. Should you have any concerns regarding our business ethics, please contact our confidential hotline at 1-844-693-4318. Our Code of Conduct is found on our website at www.enterpriseproducts.com. It is found under the "Corporate Governance" menu.

People and businesses that want to do business, or continue to do business, with Enterprise must understand that all purchases by Enterprise will be made exclusively on the basis of price, quality, service and suitability to Enterprise's needs.

Reciprocity will not be allowed. Suppliers will not be compelled to buy goods and/or services from Enterprise, an Enterprise employee or his/her family or to donate money, goods or services to a school, charity or non-profit organization in order to become or to continue to be a supplier.

Employees or their families must not seek or accept and Contractors may not offer or give any type of payment (direct, indirect, under-the-table, or otherwise), kickback or rebate related to or based upon Enterprise's purchase or sale of goods or services. Any offer of this type should be immediately reported to the Confidential Employee Hotline.

Enterprise retains the right to discipline (up to and including termination of employment) or end working relationships with those who do not comply.

Gifts and Entertainment

We recognize that common business practice permits the offer and acceptance of certain courtesies, usually meals and entertainment. Our employees should not accept gifts or entertainment if it is believed that the gift or entertainment obligates our employee to do business with your company.

To avoid both the reality and appearance of improper relations between Enterprise employees and Contractors, suppliers or customers, the following standards apply to the receipt or offer of gifts and entertainment:

Gifts

Gifts include, but are not limited to, merchandise, products, personal services, and tickets to theater or sporting events. Employees must not solicit gifts, gratuities or any type of personal benefit or favor.

Employees are prohibited from accepting gifts of money and gift cards. Gifts valued at greater than $250 must be pre-approved by a member of our senior management.

Entertainment

Employees are prohibited from soliciting entertainment from any company or person doing or attempting to do business with Enterprise. Entertainment includes, but is not limited to, meals, golf outings, out of town trips and sporting events.

Permitted entertainment involves the people who would naturally deal with the issues to be discussed or the business to be transacted. Additionally, the expense and location of the entertainment must be reasonable, given the persons involved and the nature of the business to be transacted.

Again, should you wish to report potential violations to Enterprise, please contact our confidential hotline at 1-844-693-4318
